

Genealogical Summary and Children

Genealogical Summary

ELIJAH PEASE, SR., son of John Pease and his wife Zipporah (née Coy), was born 12 February 1770 in Somers, Tolland, Connecticut and died after 1850 likely in Plato Center, Kane, Illinois. He is likely buried in Plato, Kane, Illinois.

Elijah married ANNA FULLER, parents unknown¹, on 3 December 1795 in Stafford, Tolland, Connecticut. She was born 3 June 1775 in Connecticut; died after 1850, likely in Plato Center, Kane, Illinois; and was likely buried there.

Children of Elijah and Anna Pease

WILLIAM PEASE born 13 Oct 1797 in Stafford, Tolland, Connecticut; died 6 Apr 1856 in Eaton, Madison, New York and was buried at the West Eaton Cemetery in Eaton, Madison, New York. He married Ruth Vinton likely on 5 July 1819 in Tolland, Connecticut.

JAMES PEASE born 9 Jan 1799 in Stafford, Tolland, Connecticut; died 20 Feb 1883 in Plato Center, Kane, Illinois and was buried at Plain Cemetery in North Plato, Kane, Illinois. He married Martha Saloma Cotterell on 1 May 1822 in Stafford, Tolland, Connecticut.

DAVID FULLER PEASE born 3 March 1804 in Stafford, Tolland, Connecticut; died 6 September 1893 and was buried at Plato Center Cemetery in Plato, Kane, Illinois. He married Patience Seamans on 6 Sept 1832 in Cold Springs, Cattaraugus, New York.

ELIJAH PEASE, JR. born 3 Oct 1809 in Stafford, Tolland, Connecticut; died 21 July 1870 in Red House, Cattaraugus, New York and was buried at Bunker Hill Cemetery in Steamboat, Cattaraugus, New York. He married Mercy L. about 1830.

MASON FULLER PEASE born 10 April 1820 in Stafford, Tolland, Connecticut; died 11 Oct 1853 in Plato Center, Kane, Illinois and was buried at Plato Center Cemetery in Plato Center, Kane, Illinois. He married Polly S. Hatch about 1841 in Cattaraugus, New York.

¹ Anna's parents are often named as Nathan and Phebe Fuller. They had a daughter, Anna, but she married a Gregory and died in 1845 in New York. Anna's actual parents have not yet been identified.